APOSTOLIC LETTER
ISSUED "MOTU PROPRIO"
BY THE SUPREME PONTIFF

FRANCIS

"ANTIQUUM MINISTERIUM"

INSTITUTING
THE MINISTRY OF CATECHIST

1. The ministry of Catechist in the Church is an ancient one. Theologians commonly hold that the first examples are already present in the writings of the New Testament. The service of catechesis may be traced back to those "teachers" mentioned by the Apostle in writing to the community of Corinth: "Some people God has designated in the Church to be, first, apostles; second, prophets; third, teachers; then, mighty deeds; then, gifts of healing, assistance, administration, and varieties of tongues. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work mighty deeds? Do all have gifts of healing? Do all speak in tongues? Do all interpret? Strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts. But I shall show you a still more excellent way" (1 Cor 12:28-31).

Saint Luke begins his Gospel by stating: "I too have decided, after investigating everything accurately anew, to write it down in an orderly sequence for you, most excellent Theophilus, so that you may realize the certainty of the teachings you have received" (Lk 1:3-4). The evangelist seems to be well aware that his writings offer a specific form of instruction that can give firm assurance to those already baptized. The Apostle Paul, for his part, tells the Galatians that: "one who is being instructed in the word should share

Pope Francis Institutes New Ministry Of Catechist

The Vatican released the papal letter, Antiquum ministerium ("Ancient ministry"), on May 11 in eight languages, including Italian Sign Language.

He said that catechists played a critical role in the Church's missionary expansion in the following centuries.

"At the same time, every catechist must be a witness to the faith, a teacher and mystagogue, a companion and pedagogue, who teaches for the Church."

"It is in fact a stable form of service rendered to the local Church in accordance with pastoral needs identified by the local Ordinary, yet one carried out as a work of the laity, as demanded by the very nature of the ministry."

The pope said that bishops' conferences should decide the "necessary process of formation and the normative criteria for admission" to the new ministry.

-CBCP News

In their daily life, interwoven with family and social relationships, the laity come to realize that they “are given this special vocation: to make the Church present and fruitful in those places and circumstances where it is only through them that she can become the salt of the earth”

Faith: Our People's Source of Strength

“When people do not understand our essential doctrines as Roman Catholic Christians, we have also ourselves to blame. It could also mean we have failed in our preaching. Perhaps we have not been effective enough in our catechesis about the faith? Perhaps we should find better and more appropriate ways of communicating the faith. Our preparation for the celebration of the 500th year of Christianity in the Philippines could serve as a perfect opportunity to embark on a renewed integral evangelization in word and witness.”

Formation sets as its goal, in the first place, making catechists aware that as baptized persons they are true missionary disciples, meaning active participants in evangelization, and on this basis are enabled by the Church to communicate the Gospel and to accompany and educate believers in the faith. The formation of catechists therefore helps to develop the skills needed to communicate the faith and to accompany the brothers in their growth.

Why Do Children Refuse Attending the Mass?

By Clarence M. Batan

Translated to English by Luciana L. Urquiola

One catechist shared
About how she persevered
Teaching the students stories
About God
About the Church. ■

A parent shared
About her children
Who are unruly in the house
Disrespectful to the elders
Disinterested to attend mass. ■

A child narrated
About the situation
Of her beloved family
Parents who always fight,
Parents who feel apart. ■

When the catechist asked
The child, "Why won't you attend mass?"
She answered in tears,
"They" do not go to Church, they
Who never mature in faith at all. ■

Why Do Children Refuse Attending the Mass?

By Clarence M. Batan

Translated to English by Luciana L. Urquiola

In sobs and cries, the catechist
Persisted to persuade
The child so confused about this world
“For the parents, it seems like
To face their children with the truth--

“About the faith
“About the Church
“About Christ,”
Whispering a prayer, the catechist
watched the child
Held by her parent
Leading her out of the chapel
Once upon a Sunday
In a place of catechesis. ■

“...It is a right of parents and of students to receive a complete formation, since the religious factor is a dimension of existence and cannot be overlooked in a context, such as school is, that proposes to undertake the harmonious development of the personality. The teaching of the Catholic religion, in this sense, has a great educational value and serves the development of society itself.”

We all need to teach.

Everybody should be a catechist in any form which will start from the younger ones. We must have the mechanism and creativity to build the young minds and hearts to form the kingdom of God.

It is a long way journey for us to traverse, but if all of us will take part in this undertaking and everything is possible with God!

Missio Ad Gentes (2021)

Our catechized respondents are willing to volunteer as catechists across age groups, especially the young and adults.

We just need to find ways to engaged them and engaged with them the “synodal process”.
